Olde Point Golf & Country Club

The Olde Point Golf & Country Club was built in 1974 and opened to the public in 1975. Jerry Turner, the golf course designer, made use of the rolling terrain, wooded areas, lakes and streams to build a scenic and challenging course. Olde Point has matured into a beautiful 18 hole course with bermuda fairways and Paspalum greens. Highlighting some of the best aspects of the Southeast United States, Olde Point is a true North Carolina legacy.
